KUR
APOTHEKE

A stylized graphic element on the right side of the advertisement. It features three vertical lines of varying heights and thicknesses. The leftmost line is thin and has a series of small dots at its base. The middle line is thicker and has a series of larger dots at its base. The rightmost line is the thickest and has a series of the largest dots at its base. The lines are curved at the top, resembling a stylized 'K' or a series of arches.
